Friends of the Library Plant Sale 2009

This year's plant sale will take place on Saturday, May 16th (the Saturday after Mother's day) and will be held in the lower level of the Amundson Center. Expect the abundant local perennials, annuals, house plants, vegetables and pottery that we always have. There's always a great turnout and we are thankful to everyone who donates plants and time, as well as those who shop!

Like every year, we need help with sorting, labeling and digging plants - on the day of the sale and the days leading up to it. On Friday, May 15, we need volunteers to sort, label and price the donated plants. We've done this many years and we've got the chaos down to a system - it's fun and a little messy. If you are able to donate plants, please drop them off between 11:00 and 5:00 on Friday, May 15 in the Amundson Center Community Room. You can donate pots and containers anytime to the library. Look for the collection box near the front of the library for such items.

If you wish to donate plants, but are not able to dig or transport them, please contact Christine Albert at 423-9948 or Melanie Werth at melweth@smallbytes.net. It's helpful if you contact us a few weeks before the sale so we can schedule time for a volunteer to come out and assist you.

In May, one of our local Master Gardeners will give a talk about "companion planting" to help you plan your own garden. The time and date is still being set. Watch for information to be posted at the library and in the Cambridge News with details of the event.

We really appreciate any and all help that we get and hope you'll go home with some treasures for your garden.

Chocolate with Friends March 25

Last year's "Chocolate Indulgence" reception was so successful; it was decided to make it an annual event to kick-off the new membership year and as a thank you to past members. The "Chocolate Indulgence" membership celebration will be held at the Cambridge Library from 6:00-7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 25. This free chocolate tasting event will feature a relaxing evening, easy conversation, and delicious chocolate desserts. This is an opportunity to personally thank the members of the Friends for their volunteer work and their generous donations. Current and new members will be eligible to register for door prizes. Be a friend – Bring a friend and enjoy chocolate, chocolate and more chocolate!

Be a Friend – Bring a Friend and enjoy chocolate, chocolate and more chocolate!

May 16 • Plant Sale
This is a great opportunity to get a head start on Spring by buying plants for your garden or contributing plants from your overgrown flower beds.

August 7 & 9 • Used Book Sale
Time to stock up on your supply of books for winter reading or scale down those overburdened shelves of books that you want to share with others. Donations of books, movies, music and games can be dropped off at the library at any time.

November 7 • Art & Craft Fair
Specially selected crafters will be ready to supply great ideas for gifts and for your home décor. A luncheon and bake sale will be held in conjunction with the fair. Booth applications and guidelines are available on the Friends' website:
www.cambridgelibraryfriends.org.

Late November • Annual Meeting
Join us for a short business meeting and stay for a Wine & Beer Tasting.
