Meet Local Cambridge Authors at Maxwell Street Days - August 3 & 4

Cambridge, WI, July 28, 2007: Local Cambridge authors will be at Maxwell Street Days on August 3 and 4.

Stop by their booth in Veterans Square to view their works and hear about what's happening on the local literary scene.

The following authors look forward to meeting and chatting with you:

- Jerol Anderson, author of The Jessica Tyson Mystery Series – The Queen Anne Fox, Gone Missing in the Underground, and (coming soon) Emma's Garden.
- Rod Clark, Managing Editor of Rosebud Magazine and author of various publications including, Redshift Greenstream – A Science Fiction and Political Satire Novel.
- R. Virgil (Ron) Ellis; Associate Editor, Art Director, and Web Author of Rosebud Magazine; Author of Bone Flute – a chapbook; Writer and Performer of numerous CDs and DVDs of poetry. Mr. Ellis' most recent release is The Story of Andro: A Rock Cantata.
- Diedre Luzwick, Author and Artist of The Surrealist's Bible, Christ Kin – a collection of 130 drawings, Catcher of the Wise – a poetic re-telling of the old testament, and Endangered Species – a series of drawings.
- Cathy Thiltgen, Coordinator of The Writer's Support Group in Cambridge which meets monthly to offer guidance and feedback to local writers.

This event is being coordinated by the Friends of the Cambridge Community Library. People are encouraged to stop by the authors' booth to pick up a coupon for the Used Book Sale which will be held at the "old fur building" from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm on August 3 & 4.

Any local author interested in presenting his/her works at Maxwell Street Days is invited to participate. For more information, please contact Jerol Anderson at 608-423-7005 or Cathy Yerges at 608-423-2119.
