

Friends prepare for Nov. 2 Art and Craft Fair

One of the most exciting fall events in Cambridge is the Art and Craft Fair.

It began over 30 years ago and has remained a benefit to the local library with each passing year.

The 2013 Art and Craft Fair is especially important, as the money raised by the Friends of the Cambridge Community Library will be matched by a grant from the Cambridge Foundation.

The fair will be held Saturday, Nov. 2 at the Cambridge High School from 9 a.m.-3 p.m.

Those in attendance will find over 95 booths filled with artwork, food and craft items.

Christmas shopping is easy from the wide selection of clothing, hand-made soaps, mittens, hats, doll clothes, jewelry, woodwork and more.

The bake sale is one of the most popular aspects of the fair and those who want to purchase baked goods are encouraged to get there early.

A lunch will be served throughout the event. Patrons will have a choice of pulled pork or chicken salad served with all the trimmings and dessert. There will also be a selection of beverages to quench every visitor's thirst.

The raffle table will be bursting with items from local businesses, artists and crafts people.

A display will be set up in the Amundson Center window next to the library's front door for viewing items in this year's raffle.

The top prizes will be a handmade quilt by Shirley Coulter, tickets to the Fair and $300 cash.

"This year is exciting and meaningful to our community," said a Friends member. "The Friends hope to see you there."

Shown above, the quilt that will be auctioned off during the Cambridge Friends of the Library Art and Craft Fair Raffle Saturday, Nov. 2. From the left are Louise Dalby, quilter Shirley Coulter and Jerol Riesch.

... According to the policy of the school district, we must vacate the high school building by 8:00 p.m. ... we will respond as quickly as possible. Booth applications and forms may be submitted online or in person. ... we would very much appreciate it if you could let them know about us!

Cambridge, WI 53253
P.O. Box 460
Tel: 608.785.4444
www.cambridgefriends.org