

Cambridge Library to relocate

The Cambridge Community Library will be closed Monday, July 13-Saturday, July 18 so they can relocate to their new location.

The library plans to re-open its doors at the 101 Spring Water Alley location on Monday, July 20, at 1 p.m.

The Summer Library programming planned for Wednesday, July 15 at 2 p.m. and Friday, July 17 at 10 a.m. will still be held in the Community Room of the Amundson Center; although patrons will not be able to check-out any materials.

During the week of July 6-11 the library staff encourages the community to visit and to check out ample numbers of materials to hold them over during the re-location week.

All holds need to be picked up by Saturday, July 11 at 12 p.m.

Those who need to return items during this time are asked to continue using the Spring Street book drop.

Items will not be due, overdue charges will not accrue, and holds will not expire on the hold shelf while the library is closed.

The Deerfield Public Library at 12 W. Nelson St. will be happy to accommodate library needs the week the library is relocating.

Library cards are required to use the computers and to check out materials.

Deerfield Public Library hours are Mondays and Thursdays from 12-8 p.m.; Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m.-1 p.m.

Those with questions can call the Cambridge Library at 423-3900.

"We're looking forward to seeing you when we re-open for business on Monday, July 20 at 1p.m.," said Cambridge library director Joan Behm.
