

Annual library used book sale August 7-8

A favorite yearly event in the community is the Friends of Cambridge Library Used Book Sale.

The Friends raise money through this sale to help pay for programs and needs of the library.

These past several years they raised over $185,000 to add to the building fund for the new library, which will open at the end of July.

This year the book sale will be held Aug. 7 from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. and Aug. 8 from 9 a.m.-3 p.m.

There will be a themed basket raffle and tickets will be $1 or six tickets for $5.

At this time the Friends are calling for volunteers to help set up the sale and to work a few hours either one or both days of the sale.

Raffle basket creators are asked to donate a basket or two for the raffle.

Those wanting to help can stop by the library to sign up or call the library at 423-3900.

The set-up time will be Wednesday, Aug. 6 from 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Donations are still being accepted.

This book sale is a fun event as there will be many books for children, all categories for adults, DVDs and CDs, and the raffle with some new things this year, such as Fairy Gardens.

The Friends of the Cambridge Library book sale in 2014 was crowded with those browsing for a new summer read.
